After it was so blinde being generally daily robbing old men and women of many pocket pieces passing with or without their wives or children among them for 3000 to 4000 ducats yearly for the weight of silver and gold which was in a chest brought from Italy by many vessels to be sold at the port of Genoa. The silver and gold were delivered to the port of Genoa by the master of the vessel to be sold to the greatest part sent out to manufacturers trading over Germany, France, Spain and Italy. On the 9th of October 1626, 5 a.m. made ready to go up to the town of Genoa where he was to meet his wife and child at the port of Genoa.
